Public Consultation on proposed changes to the Companies Act 2014 and related legislation

Response Template

Section A: Proposed amendments to the Companies Act 2014

Implications of the proposed changes for information maintained by companies:

Question A1:

Do you have any views on the intended approach relating to the maintenance by companies of address details of relevant officers?

Response:

We believe it is important to flag that the change can be applicable to the Register of Directors' Interests and any of the supplementary Registers such as Register of Allotments, Transfers etc.

We suggest some method for retrospective application – the majority of discussions we have with clients regarding use of Form T1 is that while they have genuine concerns regarding their safety/privacy etc. that the Form T1 is not fit for purpose as there is no retrospective application such that their details are still open for public to see. In that way the majority do not proceed with the T1. We believe this needs to be the backbone of this legislation and a method created for such by CRO on submitted forms.
